Monologue Study with Jack Lampert

October 17- 26, 2017
6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Ages 18+
$125

CLASS WILL MEET THREE TIMES A WEEK FOR 2 WEEKS, ON TUESDAY-THURSDAY EVENINGS.

Join us for a two-week session where we will deconstruct and reconstruct monologues. This class will focus on how an actor can work to find the story within the monologue. Participants are welcomed to bring in a monologue or two they would like to work on or monologues can be assigned to you. Each student should have a dramatic and comedic monologue by the end of the course.

INSTRUCTOR: Jack Lampert

Acting for the Fun of It

September 20- November 15, 2017
10:00 AM- 12:00 PM

Age 55+
$100

The class will study Commedia dell'arte (comedy through the art of Improvisation) a form of rehearsed/improvised comedy. Actors will assume stock characters that represent fixed social types, and perform scenarios that have predetermined plots but are largely improvised. Come discover the actor in you and expand your creativity.

INSTRUCTOR: Wendy Morgan
